Steps Toward Independence & Responsibility
People On the Go in partnership with the Developmental Disabilities Administration (DDA) is seeking individuals with disabilities to want to learn about effective way to advocate for themselves and others.

The goal of Project STIR is to:
• Teach individuals with disabilities how to:
• Communicate effectively
• Problem solve
• Acknowledge their rights and responsibilities
• How to get involved within their community
• How to work effectively in advocacy groups

What to Expect:
• 2 days of training
• Lunch will be provided both days
• Transportation support if needed

When and Where:
July 19th and 20th - Thursday and Friday
10 - 3pm
POG Office

Please RSVP to Tami Goldsmith Tami@pogmd.org – register earlier space is limited